Science Experiments for Fun and Instruction

By John Ostrowick

Lulu Enterprises, UK Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 180 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 5.9in. x 0.7in. This is a collection of mainly chemistry experiments which have been assembled over a period of four years, which I hope will serve both as educational and entertaining for students of science, either at highschool or college level. They are divided up into sections on how to perform them, precautionary and informative notes, and a brief list of topic areas in which they would be relevant. Where possible, the chemical reactions are provided as well as some notes explaining the appropriate scientific principle that is illustrated by the particular experiment. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
