O946 2007k OCLC Number: (OCoLC)430827741 Subject: Terrorism -- Pakistan -- Prevention. Excerpt: . . . 11 hundreds of years of history and open up opportunities for the countries of Central Asia, as well as South Asia. We have and will have a long and very enduring strategic relationship with Pakistan, to work together for its success in all these areas, but achieving our goals in Pakistan is going to take time. So how can we help Pakistan succeed politically, economically, and militarily I talk about the four Es - education, economy, energy, and elections. First, we are supporting the renewal of Pakistans public education system. If you look at all the various money we put in through project assistance, through the Fulbright program, through their own budget, it is well over 100 million a year that we put into the reform and expansion of education in Pakistan. That is a small part of their own efforts to reform and expand their education system. They have, I think, gone from 1.3 billion a year on education from the Federal budget in 2003...
