Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Synopsis of Chilian Statistics for 1878-1879, Vol. 1 The government of that Republic, disregarding claims of unquestionable justice, asserted by Chili, endeavored to enforce a law of its Legislature, under which was imposed a tax of ten cents on the dollar for every hundred-weight of saltpetre exported from the port of Antofagasta. This tax virtually annulled the treaty of 1874, the third in order of those which Chili had concluded with Bolivia, having always in view the amicable settlement of the questions between the two countries. Because the paramount object of that treaty was chiefly to protect, in the territory ceded by Chili to Bolivia, Chilian capital and business, against taxes which did not exist at the date of said treaty. The new taxes would be calculated to destroy that protection, and defeat all the benefits reserved to Chili for the valuable concessions she had made to Bolivia. The government of Chili made known to Bolivia, on the 8th of November, 1878, the true import of the question, and informed that government what would be...
