Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Some Records of the Northrup and Tucker Families of Rhode Island: With Notes on Intermarrying Families The following records have been in course of preparation for several years, under the direction of Mr. William Guile Northup of Minneapolis, Minn. The data of the first four generation of the Northup family, together with the Congdon Notes, were collected and prepared by Mrs. Louise P. Bates, of Oak Lawn, Rhode Island, who found her material among the Vital Records of North Kingstown, and the Land and Probate Records of both North and South Kingstown, R. I. About fifteen years ago the gathering of the records of the Tucker family was begun by General and Mrs. James Shaw, of Providence, R. I., an uncle and aunt of Mrs. Northup. Mrs. Shaw was much interested in the matter and collected much valuable data of the Fisher, Potter, Arnold and other lines, which carried the family back to the Mayflower and to the early Colonial families of Rhode Island. She was not successful, however, in tracing the Tucker family back...
