Excerpt: .Geneva, at its foot, is a place of considerable distinction as a Summer retreat. Tickets over Seneca Lake, via Watkins and Geneva, to Niagara Falls and all places of interest to Summer Excursionists, may be obtained at the offices of the Erie Railway, in New York, Philadelphia, and Boston. HIS wide-known and ever-popular Summer Resort is now opened for the season of (875. It is situated in the northern part of Vermont, at the head of Lake Memphremagog, and five miles south of the line separating the Dominion of Canada from the United States. During the last spring this House has been entirely refurnished and refitted and placed in complete order in all its appointments, and it is now one of the largest and finest hotels in New England. It is four stories high, has a front of nearly 200 feet, and its broad new piazzas command a charming view of lake and mountain scenery. There is nothing more gorgeous and beautiful than the sunset views obtained from the north piazzas, which overlook the lake. This House will easily accommodate 500 guests. It is supplied with water, gas, and steam, and is fitted up in every department with all the modern improvements and conveniences. In the basement, fronting on the park and lake, are billiard-rooms and bowlingalleys for both ladies and gentlemen. A fine livery stable, with the best of horses and carriages, is connected with this House; also, new and elegant row-boats. The steamer...
