Spoon-feeding

By Donna Burnett

AuthorHouse. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 100 pages. Dimensions: 8.8in. x 5.8in. x 0.4in. The word spoon-feeding has suffered a negative reputation! Dr. Donna Burnett decided to promote the words healthier meaning after her teacher announced one day that no one would be spoon-fed in his class. Most of us were spoon-fed as babies. That nourishment helped us to grow. This book illustrates spoon-feeding as both an art and a way of living. Spoon-feeding is an act of sharing hope or love or encouragement. It is an understanding that self-care is not selfish. The chapters share the authors personal and professional experiences and highlight how ordinary actions and words may have profound effects on others. Dr. Burnett practices spoon-feeding daily. Readers may discover that they practice spoon-feeding, too. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
